Pasco County Tax Collector Mike Fasano & Staff Collect

$11,000 for the Humane Society of Pasco County

During the month of February, the Humane Society of Pasco County was the featured charitable giving organization at the Pasco County Tax Collector's Office. The Humane Society of Pasco County is a 100% no-kill shelter which is run solely by volunteers and community donations.

“The Humane Society of Pasco County would like to thank Tax Collector Mike Fasano, and Assistant Tax Collector Greg Giordano for making us the monthly organization that they help in Pasco County,” comments Suellen Szesyski, President of the Society's Board of Directors. “We would also like to thank the generous citizens of Pasco County for making all the donations that made February such a really great success for us. The people of Pasco County donated $11,000 to the Humane Society. You have all helped to save the unwanted and abused animals of Pasco. They thank you and we thank you so much.”

“The Humane Society of Pasco County provides a needed service to countless animals who are left homeless, hurt and without care,” comments Tax Collector Mike Fasano. “It was an honor to help raise funds for a charity with a mission to help lost and hurting animals no matter the cost. Thank you to a very generous community for taking the Humane Society to heart and donating so much to help the animals live a better life and hopefully find a home that will forever be theirs.”
