Tax Collector Mike Fasano's Offices Feature "The Hope Shot" as April's Charitable Giving Organization

Tax Collector Mike Fasano's five offices will feature The Hope Shot as the charitable organization for the month of April 2025. The Hope Shot is a community recovery non-profit that helps individuals move forward with a successful life overcoming addiction.

"At The Hope Shot we are dedicated to helping individuals reclaim their lives from addiction," remarks Justin McPadden, Founder and Executive Director. "Through peer support, sober living scholarships, recovery coaching and other community outreach, we provide a lifeline to those seeking a fresh start. We appreciate any support the community may be able to provide us in serving more individuals working to make their lives better."

"The Hope Shot is a remarkable organization that serves those overcoming the horrors of substance abuse," comments Tax Collector Mike Fasano. "The Hope Shot provides the next step in their recovery. Our five tax collector offices will be collecting donations to support The Hope Shot's efforts. Please consider donating to help The Hope Shot give a new lease on life to the men and women they serve!"
