Pasco Tax Collector's Five Offices Raise $5,000 for "Seniors in Service"

Tax Collector Mike Fasano announces that $5,000 was raised to benefit Seniors in Service, which was the featured charity of the month in January. Seniors in Service is an organization that has served seniors for over 40 years. The program serves older Floridians by helping them use their skills and abilities to provide volunteer work for the most vulnerable members of our community.

"We are so grateful for the generosity of Pasco County residents!" remarks Robin Ingles, CEO of Seniors in Service. "Your donation helps Seniors in Service foster connection, fight loneliness, and strengthen our community through service. Volunteering is much bigger than just acts of kindness; it's a lifeline to those facing isolation and has the power to bring us closer together in a world that often feels divided. Thank you for supporting our mission."

"It has been an honor to sponsor Seniors in Service as our January Charity-of-the-Month," comments Tax Collector Mike Fasano. "Thank you to a very generous community who donated to this fine organization. Seniors in Service will be able to reach out to more seniors in need and help make life better for many older people in our community. From a very grateful tax collector's office I thank every person who made this charitable promotion a success.”
